There was nothing to it but Jane Swift in the fifth race, the Pasadena speedster walking home at one to three. Harry Stanhope brought smiles to many backers for place, while Dayton's free advice that his filly, Pallas, would show came all too true to suit the books.

The last race was considered an open one, with No Quarter, the winner, liked not quite so well by the talent as was Furnace and Swagerlator. In surprising contrast to his last race, No Quarter had contrast to his last race, No Quarter had a world of speed and won all the way. Swagerlator was backed, but failed to show any class in the running.

CANCELLATION OF GAME

Los Angeles Newspapers Give the Bantamweight Championship to Webster.

Los Angeles, Oct. 12.—The ten-round fight between Monte Attell, champion bantamweight, and Danny Webster here tonight went the limit. The decision, which by agreement between the fighters was left to the morning newspapers of the city, went to Webster. No decision was permitted from the ring.

The fight was a fast one, but both men apparently were in good condition at the end of the tenth round. The Herald gave telegraph communications with the University of Utah eleven and the Butte Miners scheduled for the coming Saturday was called off by the Butte team Tuesday afternoon. The reason is not known. Coach Joe Maddock received a telegram from the manager of the team Which stated: "Will be unable to come. Details will follow." Coach Maddock stated Tuesday night that he knew of no other reason for calling off the game other than that the Butte Miners scheduled for the coming Saturday was called off by the Butte team Tuesday afternoon.
